Advertising Membership Services

Our Advertising Membership service allows you to advertise as many vacancies as you like, when you like, for as long as you like. You'll get access to our premium advertising package, giving you the best coverage we have to offer. You only pay us the placement fee when we fill your vacancy.

1. A Placement fee (dependent on membership level purchased) is charged per successful placement
2. AboutTheJob will manage all job applications and candidate contact information
3. Applications are filtered and sent to a designated mail inbox at "Client"
4. "Client" decide which applicants they would like to interview and AboutTheJob arranges the interviews
  - a. All interviews need to be arranged via AboutTheJob
5. Where applicable, the placement fee is due on the last working day before the candidate starts (The invoice is raised as soon as a start date has been agreed).
6. If the candidate leaves the company within 4 weeks of their start date, a one-time refund of 50% is paid.
  - a. Once the invoice has been raised, payment is required
  - b. The refund terms also cover the period from when an invoice is raised up until the start date of the candidate should circumstances change with either party.
  - c. Refunds will be made within 28 days of confirmation candidate has left the position.
7. AboutTheJob owns the candidate details up until the time the candidate is successfully placed.
8. A candidate is chargeable when "Client" requests to interview the candidate or requests their contact details from or via AboutTheJob.
  - a. Should "Client" employ a candidate (independently) that AboutTheJob has sent, arranged interviews with and or passed contact details on, within 12 months from the date the initial CV/candidate details were sent, the necessary placement fee will be chargeable.
    - i. A further fine of £1,000, for breach of contract, will also be added to the charge.
